

Sterling Administration Proud to Support Local Food Banks

Sterling Administration is proud to make donations this Thanksgiving season to five regional food banks.

OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA (PRWEB) November 24, 2015 -- Sterling Administration is proud to announce that in the spirit of wellness and giving, it has made donations to the following food banks, located in the regions it serves:

- Hawaii Food Bank
- Alameda County Community Food Bank
- Second Harvest Food Bank
- Los Angeles Mission
- North Texas Food Bank

Cora Tellez, President and CEO, says, “On behalf of the Sterling family, it gives me great joy to donate to these food banks. Hunger is a community problem that we all can help prevent. Preventing hunger, and improving wellness aligns perfectly with Sterling’s culture of empowering families, both physically and financially.”

About Sterling Administration

Sterling Administration is an independent, privately-held administrator for HSAs, HRAs, FSAs, POPs and COBRA. Additionally, Sterling offers expert compliance services for ERISA Wrap, Form 5500 Filing, non-discrimination testing, and requirements under the Patient Protection Affordable Care Act (PPACA); it also offers an online benefits enrollment platform in English and Spanish.

Founded in 2004, Sterling pioneered the HSA industry, and today is a leading HSA administrator nationwide. Sterling is led by experts in the health benefits and healthcare financing industries for one primary purpose - to put employers, consumers and families in control of healthcare spending and in touch with resources to help manage their money and their health.

Sterling was named a national Best Place to Work by Business Insurance Magazine in 2014. Sterling’s office culture promotes health and wellness, reinforced by daily walks and stretching, led by CEO Cora Tellez. Sterling is based in Oakland, California with remote staff nationwide.
